

Parallel Session 1

14/nov

90min

Topic		University – Industry Collaboration
Room	Viana do Castelo	Session chair: Anabela Alves
Paper	Title		Speaker	Tempo
22	University and Spin-off Cooperation Fosters the Technology Transfer to Industrial Companies		Paulo Peças	18+4
41	The new Brazilian legal framework of science & technology, and its role as an inductor of the introduction of lean processes in micro and small enterprises		Sicy Melo
79	A3-thinking in student projects and its impact on developing continuous improvement in industrial practice		Gerlinde Oversluize
31	Lean School: an example of industry-university collaboration		Jose Antonio Pascual Rua

Topic		Sustainable Lean Manufacturing: factors of success and problem solving strategies
Room	D.Afonso Henriques	Session chair: Helena Navas
Paper	Title		Speaker	Tempo
66	Lean leadership: systematic literature review		Susana Duarte	18+4
32	Why developing supervisors' TWI skills is fundamental for your Lean Journey?		Agata Pawlukojs
50	The Problem with 'Tools and Techniques'; Why Becoming a 'Learning Organisation' is Vital to a Successful Lean Transformation.		Graham Canning
77	Triz as a support methodology for new product development		Helena Navas

Topic		Lean Training
Room	Braga	Session chair: Rui Sousa
Paper	Title		Speaker	Tempo
54	Teaching and Implementing Lean Construction in the Construction Industry.		Janni Tjell and Kajsa Simu	18+4
36	Implementation of Lean Development in industry		Sebastian Allegretti
7	How Geographic and Cultural Factors Influence Lean Training & Implementation		Maria Pia Caraccia and Jo
35	Effectiveness of a Lean Simulation Training: Challenges and Insights into Different Didactical Concepts		Martin Adam

Topic		Approaches to Lean
Room	Guimarães	Session chair: Rui Lima
Paper	Title		Speaker	Tempo
2	Big Lean Deployment : A comparison of 3 different approaches across 3 multinational organisations		Neil Trivedi	25+5
	Lean Global Network: A global network of sharing, collaboration and development		Sérgio Caldeirinha
12	Strength-based lean: a different way		David Shaked	